CERTIFICATION: PME

The Institute for Security Governance (ISG) United Nations (UN) Peacekeeping Engagement Platoon (EP) Training Course enhances the institutional capacities of peacekeeping training centers to facilitate training of EP responsibilities and tasks. This course also prepares peacekeeping training centers to deliver EP training to officers and soldiers who will be deployed in support of multidimensional, integrated peacekeeping missions with a Protection of Civilians (POC) mandate.

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Understand the roles of EP in peacekeeping operations (PKO) with POC mandates.
- ◆ Create a common understanding of coordination between UN PKO and various agencies in the field.
- ◆ Develop officers and soldiers to enhance effective community engagement and information gathering.
- ◆ Instruct on the importance of human rights, UN Code of Conduct, and sexual exploitation and abuse.
- ◆ Develop the skills to respond to Conflict-Related Sexual Violence (CRSV) and Child Protection incidents.
- ◆ Enhance presentation and facilitation skills, with a focus on facilitating scenario-based exercises.

TOPICS

The goal of this course is to improve national armed forces' abilities to effectively participate in UN PKO to resolve international crises. The course methodology includes presentations from subject matter experts, and group and plenary discussions and classroom exercises that focus on problem-solving fictitious PKO scenarios and standalone problems related to various aspects of peacekeeping operations.

- ◆ Coordination with vulnerable populations
- ◆ Presentation and facilitation skills
- ◆ Facilitation of scenario-based exercises
- ◆ Special topics in UN peace operations
- ◆ Protection of Civilians, Conflict-Related Sexual Violence (CRSV), and Child Protection
- ◆ Implementing EP training for deploying formations

PARTICIPANTS

This course is ideally suited for junior- to mid-level officers and civilian equivalents. Previous UN peacekeeping experience is required.

INSTITUTE FOR SECURITY GOVERNANCE (ISG) EDUCATION PORTFOLIOS

ISG's tailored education and professional development courses help build a comprehensive knowledge base and strengthen partner capacities to confront complex security and defense challenges. Courses are designed to cultivate individual understanding of complex issues; foster peer-to-peer learning; and build international communities of practice.

FACULTY

ISG's faculty team is grounded in professional experience from academic, military, government, and civil sectors. The core faculty are augmented by experts drawn from other parts of government, and U.S. and international subject matter experts drawn from universities, industry, think tanks, international organizations, and non-governmental organizations.

ENROLLMENT

Courses are conducted as part of the U.S. Government's Security Cooperation efforts. Interested partner nation personnel should contact their government's international cooperation section, or the relevant U.S. Embassy's Security Cooperation organization for selection processes and enrollment. Interested U.S. citizens may contact ISG to discuss availability.

FUNDING

Educational programs are primarily implemented through Title 22 authorized programs, including International Military Education and Training (IMET), Foreign Military Sales (FMS), Peacekeeping Operations (PKO), and various Title 10 authorized programs, including the Maritime Security Initiative (MSI) and Regional Defense Fellowship Program (RDFP).

ABOUT ISG

The Defense Security Cooperation University's (DSCU) Institute for Security Governance (ISG) is the Department of Defense's leading implementer for Institutional Capacity Building (ICB) and one of its primary international schoolhouses. As a component of the Defense Security Cooperation Agency (DSCA), ISG is charged with building partner institutional capacity and capability through tailored advising, education, and professional development programs grounded in American values and approaches.
